ST ANDREW'S, CHESTERTON

A thriving, open and welcoming church community for all ages

www.standrews-chesterton.org

29 May 2011

WELCOME to St Andrew's today.

Half term has begun: Dorothy & Alasdair are away today. Nick is at Holy Trinity (for the civic service) acting as chaplain to Ian Nimmo-Smith, the new mayor of Cambridge. So thanks to Lorna for once again holding the fort! There will be Junior Church in the Hall this morning.

This evening is Informal Worship. The theme of the service will be 'Waiting on the Spirit'. Come along for an evening of praise, worship and reflection. Nick will be leading a discussion and reflection on what it means to be filled with the Spirit—you are invited to come and share experiences. Musicians and singers would be welcome—please contact Olivia (oliviacoles29@gmail.com).

If you would like to know more about life at St Andrew's, please fill in one of the 'Welcome' cards in the pews and hand it in to one of the clergy.

There is a toilet at the east end of the church: a sidesperson will point you in the right direction.

'Do not fear... but in your hearts sanctify Christ as Lord.'

This week

Thursday is Ascension Day. There will be a service of Evensong at 7.30pm, which is followed by the Annual General Meeting of the Friends of St Andrew's. The Friends raise money, mainly from annual subscriptions, to help keep the fabric and furnishings of the church in good order and we always welcome new members. If you would like to join please speak to John Reynolds or Patricia Abrey. There is no fixed amount for the subscription. Give as much as you can.

Volunteers needed!

Someone (not necessarily a PCC member) willing to be co-opted as a member of Deanery Synod, which meets in various places twice a year.

And someone interested in the PA system to join the team of sound technicians. Please contact Margaret Robins, 573511, Margaret.robins191@gmail.com.

We are also looking for someone willing to offer a room in their home for a gap year student who may well be coming to St Andrew's (Church and Hall) in August/September for a year. The likely candidate is a 20 year old female from Germany. She will work a full week for us, will receive pocket money and board & lodging (for which we will pay). Interested? Please have a word with Nick or Eleanor.

Development Project News

Our consideration of the organ continues. For the whole of June we are arranging for an electronic organ to be installed by Allen Organs. This will give us all the opportunity to see (or, more importantly, hear!) what such an instrument sounds like. It will be used across the range of our services. At the same time, we will also be meeting with traditional pipe organ builders to discuss the possibilities for renewing our current organ and giving it a new lease of life (looking at a new location at the east end of the north aisle).
