Weekly News Update, 26 August 2022

The Church and Hall Office are now closed until Monday 5 September at 9am. If you would like anything included in the notices for Friday 2 September please email Hannah before Wednesday 31 August.

For Church related matters which can not wait until I return from annual leave please email Maggie

We are pleased to say that the electric doors have now been fixed and the Church will be open for visitors during the day.

On Sunday 4 September at 4.30pm Revd Jonathan Collis will be instituted and inducted as Rector of St Botolph's, Cambridge. Everybody is welcome to come along to the service - clergy do not need to robe, and just turn up for the service based around choral evensong followed by refreshments. Please note there will be no evening service at St Andrew's that day.

The Monday Coffee Morning will begin again on Monday 5 September, 10.45am - 12noon when all are welcome.

The next meeting of the Bible Study Group will be held on Tuesday 6 September. New members are always very welcome.

There will be a Cafe Church for children and families in the Hall on Sunday 11 September at 10am.

The new edition of The Chesterton Chimes is now available and can be read here.

Coffee Volunteers Needed - The social coffee time after Sunday service is valued by many. We'd like to go back to having it every week starting in September, but we'll need more volunteers. Might you be willing to help? If you're not confident, we can match you up to assist someone who is. To sign up or ask questions, get in touch with Emily at emily.winslow.stark@gmail.com Thank you!

Vigil for Ukraine - Prayers for Peace - The weekly hour of prayer for Ukraine continues every Wednesday from 5.00 to 6.00 pm. Please drop in for as long as you wish. There will be prayer resources available in the south aisle for all other times when the church is open.
