Weekly News Update, 9 September 2022

St Andrew's will be marking this solemn time following the death of the Queen in a number of ways. At noon on Friday the church bells will be rung half-muffled. Listen out for the distinctive and moving sound that is a characteristic of mourning. A Book of Remembrance will be available on the Welcome Table near the entrance to the church for people to record their thoughts and presence. Candles may be lit at the prayer stand by the south aisle chapel. The 10am main Sunday service is a sung eucharist where we hope to be joined by families who have been attending cafe church.

We were delighted to be able to share details about the arrival of our new Vicar Philip Lockley during last week's service. Please see below a little more about Philip and his family.

Hello – we're Philip, Ruth, Jonathan and Sam, and we're excited to be moving to Chesterton to join the St Andrew's Church community. We thought you might like to know a bit more about us – at least to tide you over until you all meet us in person in December. Philip used to teach and research theology and Christian history at Oxford before leaving academia to follow a calling to ordination. He has since served in parish ministry in East Oxford and County Durham – currently as Priest-in-Charge of Holy Trinity Washington. Ruth works in charity administration and the voluntary sector, most recently for Citizens Advice in both Durham and Oxford. Jonathan is 10 and wants you to know he likes heraldry, history, planes and ships. Sam is 8 and likewise considers his priorities to be Playmobil, Lego, Pirates and writing stories. We all love cycling, canoeing and joyful, thoughtful faith – so are looking forward to opportunities for all of these in Chesterton!

To sign up or ask questions, get in touch with Emily at emily.winslow.stark@gmail.com Thank you!
