More news, and some reminders...

Returning to 'the Common Cup' – receiving Communion wine from the chalice again

As was explained in past News Update, the results of the recent survey showed that many people would still prefer to continue to receive the Communion bread dipped in wine by the President, but a significant number would like to return to receiving wine directly from a chalice. Both these options are now offered at Communion services.

The way you will be asked to signal which option you would prefer will vary between styles of Communion service, as detailed below.

At the 8am Communion (in the South Aisle): all those choosing to receive the bread dipped in the wine will be invited to come forward first. Kneeling at the Communion rail has been resumed. Then, once they have received and returned to their seats, all those choosing to receive the bread and then the wine separately will be invited forward.

At the 10am Communion (in the Nave): there will be two chalice bearers – one on either side of the President. As you are invited out of your pew, it is your choice which of two lines you join: those in line on the left as you face the altar will be handed bread dipped in wine; those in line on the right will be handed only the bread. Once the latter have consumed the bread, they are welcome to step to the right-hand chalice bearer and sip from the chalice, as they choose. Please wait beside the front pew until a space in front of the President is available before stepping forward to receive.

All this will, for a period, be reiterated verbally during the instructions before the giving of Communion, and will be adjusted in due course if an alternative, better means is found of sharing

Communion in ways that will ensure we all feel as comfortable as possible in this important moment of our worship.

Two concerts in church, coming up later this month:

Sunday 19 March, 4 pm - Margery: The sounds of medieval pilgrimage St Radegund's Voices sing music by Ciconia, Dufay, Binchois, Dunstaple, and others, inspired by the pilgrimages of Margery Kempe, mystic and autobiographer from King's Lynn. Free admission, retiring collection.

Wednesday 22 March, 7.30 pm - Gabriel Faure's Requiem, sung by the Chesterton Choral Society. Also featuring music by Boulanger, Mendelssohn, Mozart and more. Tickets £10 on the door.

Wedding and Funeral Orders of Service Archive: A folder has been created in which it is hoped to make a collection of wedding and funeral orders of service, whereby members of the wider church community can be remembered, particularly now photos have now mostly become a part of funeral, thanksgiving or memorial service orders of service. It was thought such an archive would serve for us to remember those who have been part of our community for either a short or long time. We already have about 20 from the last 20 years and we know there must be many more. If you have any you would be prepared to donate to the collection then please speak to Patricia Abrey 07761 478499 or patricia.abrey@standrews-chesterton.org. Thank you.

The next meeting of the Book Club will be on Tuesday 14th March, at 8 pm, at the home of Ewa Allen (42 Hawthorn Way, Tel. 367351). We will be discussing Digging to America, by Anne Tyler. The book charts the course of two mismatched families, the all-American Donaldsons and the quieter, more reticent Iranian-American Yazdans. All they have in common is that they both adopted babies from Korea at the same time, welcoming them on the same flight at Baltimore airport one hot August evening in 1997... New and occasional members are most welcome.

Concert by the Cambridge Concert Orchestra, Sunday 12 March 2023, 7pm, West Road Concert Hall, proceeds to the Cambridge Women's Resources Centre

Hear, There and Everywhere – a World of Women Composers

In recognition of International Women's Day (Wed 8th) the Cambridge Concert Orchestra programme is entirely made up of pieces composed by women, focusing on their contribution to the light-orchestral repertoire.

Tickets: adults £15, (£12 for restricted view or block bookings of 10 tickets or more), children FREE.
